_____, Chairperson, Zoning Board of Appeals

VARIANCES

In granting a Use Variance the Board of Appeals review section of the Village Code - 200-76 (E)(1-4).

Use Variance: Where there is unnecessary hardship created by compliance with the strict letter of this chapter as to the use of a building or land, the Board of Appeals shall vary modify such use regulations so the spirit of the chapter shall be observed.

The Zoning Board of Appeals shall not grant a Use Variance unless it finds that the following conditions apply:

- 1) Economic return. That the building or land in question cannot yield a reasonable economic return if used only for a purpose permitted in the district. Proof of a more profitable return if the variance is granted is not, in itself, evidence of economic hardship.
- 2) Unique circumstances. That unique circumstance exist for the land or building in question which are not generally found throughout the district and which deprive the applicant of the reasonable use of such land or building.
- 3) Neighborhood character. That granting the variance will be in harmony with the spirit and intent of this chapter and will not alter the essential character of the surround neighborhood.
- 4) That the hardship claimed is not self-created.

In granting an area variance the Board of Appeals review section of the Village Code - 200-76 (F)(1-4).

Area Variance: Where there are practical difficulties or special conditions which make the regulations governing lot size, yard size, building height, parking requirements, signs or any other regulation not specifically related to use of land or buildings unreasonable or impossible to comply with, the Board of Appeals shall vary or modify these regulations so long as the spirit of the regulation to be altered is observed.

The Zoning Board of Appeals will not grant an Area Variance without consideration of the following factors:

- 1) Economic injury. That the owner of the property is experiencing significant economic injury or financial hardship because of such regulations.
- 2) Reasonable objective. That the applicant's intended objective is reasonable and there is no way to accomplish such objective if the area regulations of the chapter are observed.
- 3) Neighborhood character. That the area variance requested will not be unduly detrimental to adjoining properties and will not produce undesirable changes In the physical or environmental conditions in the neighborhood.
- 4) That the area variance granted is the minimum necessary to provide relief to the applicant.
